

Eines für Alle?

Um die Bedeutung des Euro zu würdigen und ein Gegengewicht zum allgegenwärtigen Dollar zu schaffen, entschied sich die Europäische Kommission für die Entwicklung eines eigenen Symbols. Im Gegensatz zu Zeichen wie dem für Prozent oder für Paragraph entwickelte sich dieses neue Symbol nicht, sondern entstand in einem festgelegten Konstruktionsprozeß: In bester Bürokratenmanier wurde jedes Detail des Eurosymbols vorgeschrieben, vom Kurvenradius bis hin zur Winkelneigung der Balkenenden. Schriftspezifische Variationen sind nicht zugelassen: Eine Version muß für alle Schriften genügen.

Geben wir dem Euro-Symbol etwas Zeit sich zu entwickeln! Für die Zwischenzeit hat Bernd Möllenstädt 48 generische Eurozeichen entwickelt, die zum Großteil der klassischen Schriften der Berthold-Schriftenbibliothek passen. Welches Eurozeichen zu welcher Schrift paßt, können Sie der Übersicht auf den nächsten Seiten entnehmen.

Berthold

48 für 1713*!

Die Euro-Zeichen gibt es als Antiqua-Variante (Unshift-Ebene) und als Grotesk-Variante (Shift-Ebene).

In der ersten Tastaturreihe finden Sie die Eurozeichen jeweils für die normal-laufende Version in sechs Fettenstufen, darunter die entsprechenden Zeichen für kursive Schriften (geradestehend zwar, aber mit anderem Stand).

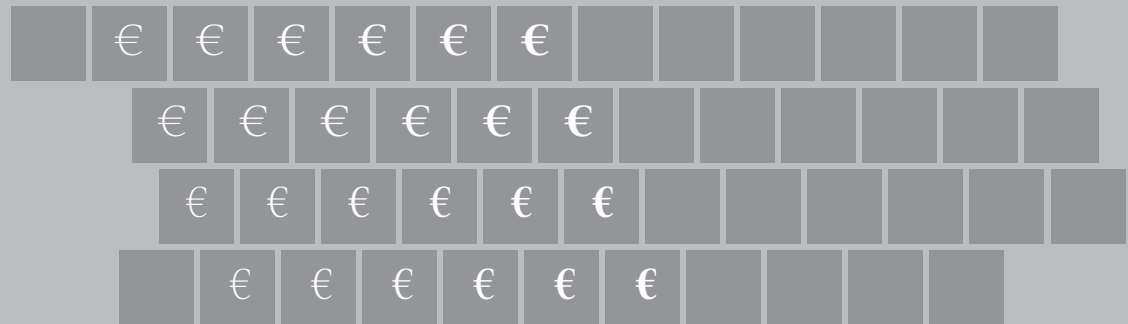

In der dritten Tastaturreihe sind Eurozeichen für schmallaufende Schriften und darunter wiederum Zeichen passend für schmal kursive Schriften.

Die 48 Eurozeichen sind auf die Schriften der Berthold-Bibliothek abgestimmt, die bekanntlich bei gleicher Schriftgröße alle die gleiche Versalhöhe haben.

Natürlich dürfen Sie unsere Euro-Zeichen auch mit anderen Schriften benutzen. In solchen Fällen kann es aber notwendig werden, die Größe der Eurozeichen der verwendeten Schrift anzupassen.

*) Den Schriften in „Cartographic“ und „Pi Character und Science“ haben wir keine Euro-Zeichen zugeordnet
